I John 2:28 (KJV)

```
D                          G
And now, little children, abide in Him;
D                          A
--- that, when He shall appear,
D
we may have confidence,
     G                         D    A         D
and --- not be ashamed before Him --- at His coming.

D                         G
When I abide in Jesus, my confidence is great
        D                           A
I will not be ashamed, First John 2, verse 28
            D                              G
He could return at any moment, and if I abide in Him
        D           A                    D
He will not find me messin' around with sin

D                          G
And now, little children, abide in Him;
D                          A
--- that, when He shall appear,
D
we may have confidence,
     G                         D    A         D       G   D A D
and --- not be ashamed before Him --- at His coming.
