

Colossians 3:1-3 (KJV)

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

A dead man doesn't crave - the things that you can see

And I am dead according to Colossians 3, verses 1 thru 3

I want to want the things above - not things on the earth

For I've been risen and been given a new birth

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above,
where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
