

Matthew 5:16 (KJV)

"Let your light so shine before men,
that they may see your good works,
and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Matthew 5, 16

Nobody lights a candle and hides it under a bed.
Ye are the light of the world, our Savior said.
And it thrilled my soul when I read.

"Let your light so shine before men,
that they may see your good works,
and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Matthew 5, 16

"Let your light so shine before men,
that they may see your good works,
and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Matthew 5, 16
