Matthew 7:6 (NASB)

D                  G
Do not give what is holy to dogs,
    D                              A
and do not throw your pearls before swine,
   D                     G
or they will trample them under their feet,
    D       A          D
and turn and tear you to pieces

D                        G
Matthew 7, verse 6 tells me
D                                 A
do not give to dogs that which is holy D                                 G
be judicious to whom you speak and when and where D               A                D
don't invest your time in people who do not care

D                  G
Do not give what is holy to dogs,
    D                              A
and do not throw your pearls before swine,
   D                     G
or they will trample them under their feet,
    D       A          D          G   D A D
and turn and tear you to pieces
