Isaiah 12:2 (NASB)

Em                   Am
Behold, God is my salvation,
        Em       B         Em
I will trust and not be afraid;
                          Am
For the LORD GOD is my strength and song,
    Em        B         Em
And He has become my salvation.

Am                             Em
the opposite of trust - is to be afraid
            B                       Em
I need not fear - for by God I am saved
   Am                   Em
O Lord how I love - to Sing to You
                       B                      Em
