

Proverbs 20:16 (TLB)

G            C                            G        D
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers
          G        C                            G D        G
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers
G            C                            G        D
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers
          G        C                            G D        G
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers

I'm a steward of God's money - I'm like a loan arranger and God says that it is risky - to loan money to a stranger

For principles in stewardship - God's Word, it does instruct me

the stranger verse is verse 16 - in Proverbs, chapter 20

G            C                            G        D
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers
          G        C                            G D        G
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers
G            C                            G        D
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers
          G        C                            G D        G
It is risky --- to make loans --- to strangers