Proverbs 27:1 (NASB)

```
G
Do not boast about tomorrow,
          C                              G
for you do not know what a day may bring forth
G
Do not boast about tomorrow,
                           D             G
for you do not know what a day may bring forth

G
I don't know what tomorrow will bring
      C                                   G
I can make my plans, but they don't mean a thing

Unless the Lord allows tomorrow to come
                              D         G
as I have planned, Proverbs 27, verse 1

G
Do not boast about tomorrow,
          C                              G
for you do not know what a day may bring forth
G
Do not boast about tomorrow,
                           D             G       C   G D G
for you do not know what a day may bring forth
